Sometimes, always, never: Regulatory clarity and the development of digital financing

This document contains replication information for the manuscript “Sometimes, always, never: Regulatory clarity and the development of digital financing,” by Zhenkai Ran (zr245@cam.ac.uk), Raghavendra Rau (r.rau@jbs.cam.ac.uk), and Tania Ziegler (t.ziegler@jbs.cam.ac.uk). In this replication package, we disclose two primary datasets, which are 1) the global country-level digital financing dataset (i.e., `crowdfunding_country_level_2015_2020.dta`), and 2) the global digital financing regulatory index dataset (i.e., `regindex_country_level_2015_2020.dta`). Platform-level digital financing dataset is subject to confidentiality requirements and is therefore not disclosed. Below we describe all the datasets used in the study and sources of externally-retrieved datasets, the data dictionary with variable names and definitions, and the list of Stata codes.
